

Figure 11 – Conceptual scheme of a 3×3 one-shot photonic solver based on the SVD decomposition. The three horizontal lines represent waveguides. Each “MZI” rectangle is a Mach–Zehnder interferometer that couples two adjacent waveguides by means of phase shifters (θ, ϕ); the circles σ_i are optical attenuators that implement the singular values; and “PD” denotes the output photodetectors.

